My name is Garima Dutt.

I have started my beginners course for French language from Shalini ma'am. She is wonderful as a French teacher. She teaches French language in an easy way which helps a fresher like me in a great way. The institute provides the flexibility of timings as well. Overall wonderful experience. I would recommend Swiss school of language to everyone who wants to learn foreign languages]

I am learning French (A1) at Swiss School of Language. This place is a must for a person who wants to learn languages. I was with another institute but when I came here, I got to know my strengths and weaknesses. The price is also very affordable. Institute is maintaining good learning environment. I really liked the way My teacher Shalini Mam gives attention to each and every student. She is very polite and her teaching methods are amazing. She is very supportive and make the course very interactive. She is not only teaches us the language but also gives insights into her own experience and how to communicate on a day-to-day basis. I really enjoy learning with her. You won't regret once you come here]
